Festival Angels on the first night of Bedford Summer Sessions

I was initially apprehensive, but the whole experience was a joy and a privilege. Helen

In recent years ROC* Angels have extended their ministry to cover music festivals around the country. This year for the first time, Bedford Street Angels have served at Bedford Summer Sessions over two weekends in Bedford Park, featuring artists including Avril Lavigne, Tom Jones and Nile Rodgers. 19 Festival Angels invested 430 hours running a Safe Hub/Welfare Tent, working alongside paramedics, security staff and other teams.

ROC – Redeeming our Communities*

We had a marquee next to the First Aid tent and cared for people needing a listening ear. We kept lost property on site and reunited a number of people with their phones. On hot evenings volunteers offered sunscreen and on a wet one we supplied low-priced plastic ponchos! We provided plasters and wet wipes and gave foil blankets to 40 cold wet people.
